Terrace, BC: Progressive Multi day

A pristine multi day adventure in Northern British Columbia, is known for grizzlies, eagles, salmon, and whitewater in a remote wilderness

Below ragged, glaciated mountain peaks, around the mountain town of Terrace, flows numerous ribbons of rugged water, winding through canyons and old growth forests on its journey toward the mighty Skeena with some of the best Class III/IV adventure paddling around.

Summary

This is an exciting wilderness adventure. We fly into Central BC, do a number of warm up runs local to Smithers, then pack and leave for one of North Americas best multi day Class III/IV trips. Its remote, the wilderness pristine, the wildlife abundant and the white water excellent. For those looking to get into multi day raft supported trips running fine white water this would be an excellent start.

Programme

- Day 1 Arrival at Prince George Airport where we'll head to Terrace
- Day 2 Straight to the river for a day trip on the Bulkley River Class III in a beautiful scenic valley with some fun Canyon sections
- Day 3 Another day and another run, the Kitsumkalum River is an awesome run with two excellent easily managed Class IV canyons
- Day 4 Rest day with packing for our 5 day expedition down the Babine Skeena River
- Day 5 To the Babine Valley for the first day Nikitwa Lake to Haniwald Creek, a mellow first day of paddling
- Day 6 The pace picks up on the Aniwald Creek to Thomlinson Creek section Class II, "the calm before storm"
- Day 7 Thomlinson Creek to Big Slide Camp Section, enter the canyon with increased difficulty Class III/III+
- Day 8 Big Slide Camp to Babine/Skeena Confluence, the fun continues with more good Class III/IV paddling including Sphincter and Grizzly Drops, where we are likely to see grizzly bears
- Day 9 Babine Skeena Confluence to Kispiox Indian Village, Big Water rapids and great fun paddling, Take out and back to Smithers
- Day 10 Day of departure with shuttle from Smithers to Prince George Airport

Of course, this schedule's only a guideline: we'll chop and change depending on how you're getting on, what the levels are like and what everyone wants to do
